Read G.O.No.38 Law (Education) dated: 6-1-1932 regarding admission of Panchamas in Schools under public management.

Resolution:- (i) This Council in reconsidering its resolution dated 22-9-1931 enunciates and emphasises the principle that pupil of no community ought to be refused admission on the ground of caste into schools provided for the community at large.

(ii) In pursuance of this principle, this Council will, in distributing grants try to give special consideration to Non-Panchama schools which freely admit Panchama pupils.

(iii) This Council is also of opinion that in the interest of the spread of Panchama Education it is highly desirable that special scholarships may be awarded by Government to Panchama pupils attending Non-Panchama schools.

May be subd. to M3 for perusal and then recorded. With refce. to Resoln no. The incentive is more required for School to take in Panchama pupils & not to the latter to go to non-Panchama schs

I would draw the attn of the DEC to A clause 2, Re (ii), we have already ordered that. Pehaps the Govt draw the DEC's attn to it.
